1. Moth - ers, wives and sweet - hearts, Now all o'er the land, Are
 2. Man - y chairs now va - cant, Wait our sol - dier boys, And think - ing of their dear ones, Ov - er there for Un - cle Sam, No man - y hearts now ach - ing, Soon will feel a thrill of joy; With won - der they are lone - ly, And their tho'ts are far a - way, For vic - t'ry on their ban - ners, And their du - ty no - bly done, Dear they are wait - ing for the time, For that grand old day: Yan - kee - land will wel - come them, When free - dom's cause is won.

CHORUS

When the boys come back a - gain, When the boys come back a - gain, You'll p-f hear the bands all play - ing, Some old time sweet re - frain; Smiles will drive a - way the pain, Like the sun - shine af - ter rain, Hearts that are cresc.

sad then will be glad When the boys come back a - gain. When the gain.
